METING OF THE CONSERVATIVE ARMY AND NAVY UNION.—The regular weekly meeting of the Conservative Army and Navy Union was held yesterday evening at the Hall in the chain, Capt. C. W. Badgley secretary. The hand of the Association was present, and previous to the organization of the meeting performed several fine airs.

Cols. Aldburgh, from the committee on the proposed convention, said that a programme had been prepared for the 1st of February. After some discussion, the committee were instructed to make the necessary arrangements for the concert, to take place on Saturday evening, the 29th inst. The application of Capt. J. W. Steele, asking to be relieved from duty as concert manager, was granted, and Capt. J. M. Moore, of the 1st U. S. Cavalry, was selected to fill his place.

The application of Capt. H. G. Davis, asking to be allowed to withdraw his resignation as a member of the Union, as a result of a former meeting, was then taken up. Considerable discussion ensued relative to the propriety of according to Captain Austin's request, after which a vote was taken, and the gentlemen referred to to withdraw his resignation.

On motion, a special committee was appointed to inquire into the military record of the members of the association.

Capt. McKeon tendered his resignation as corresponding secretary of the association and as a member of the executive committee, which was rejected.

The meeting then went into executive session.

The next meeting of the association will take place on Thursday evening, the 27th instant.
